What is the Naz Legacy Foundation?

To continue the legacy of the late Naz Bokhari OBE, by supporting young people throughout education whilst encouraging positive integration into British Society

The Naz Legacy Foundation is a UK-based charity which seeks to promote excellence in education and positive integration into British society. The Foundation was established to continue the legacy of the late Naz Bokhari OBE. The Foundation's current trustees are –, Dr Rowena Shaw (Chair), Bushra Nasir CBE DL, Harris Bokhari OBE (Founder) and Imran Sanaullah MBE

What does the Naz Legacy Foundation do?

- Interfaith- The Foundation organises high profile community integration events, and the Interfaith Iftar is the highlight of the Foundation's calendar. It offers young people (18-30) the opportunity to meet people from different faiths and none and directly engage with leaders in our society. Since 2016, we are honoured to have made history by organising the first ever Iftars at iconic and historical places of worship including Lambeth Palace and St Paul's Cathedral with faith leaders including Archbishop of Canterbury, Chief Rabbi, Cardinal Nichols and the Bishop of London
- Diversity Programme- The Diversity Programme, encourages young people from disadvantaged and minority communities to visit cultural institutions and provides them with unique opportunities such as visits to St James Palace and Clarence House to learn about the rich heritage of diverse role models in Britain.
- Naz Bokhari Programme- This programme offers young people (16-18) mentoring, skill building workshops and work placements
